Claim Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. The term "characterized" in claims 1-27 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "characterized" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Claim Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a)

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4,6-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hayes et al (US 4,405,482; 9/20/83).

Hayes teaches a sanitizing formulation used in napkins comprising DTPA. The composition functions as an antimicrobial agent. See entire reference. Hayes does not teach the instant amounts/ratio of ingredients. However, one having ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to determine the optimum amounts/ratios through routine experimentation. One would have been motivated to do this in order to develop the most effective composition.

Claim Objection

Claim 5 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art does not teach the composition comprising the compounds of this claim.

Other Matters
